Re: United States of America v. Jason Servis, 1:20-cr-00160-10-MKV

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

My co-counsel, Michael Considine, and I represent Mr. Jason Servis, who is currently on release pending the above-referenced matter. Mr. Servis's release conditions have certain travel restrictions. We respectfully seek permission for Mr. Servis to travel to, and remain in, Charles Town, West Virginia, to visit to his father [REDACTED].

If approved, Mr. Servis would travel on Sunday, May 23, 2021, to his parents' home at 9 Berkeley Ct., Charles Town, West Virginia. Mr. Servis would remain at his parents' home in Charles Town, West Virginia, during which time he plans to visit his father who is currently at [REDACTED] in Winchester, Virginia, before returning to his home in Jupiter, Florida, on or before June 6, 2021.

Mr. Servis's parents are both in their late eighties. His mother [REDACTED]. Mr. Servis respectfully requests the Court grant him permission to travel to attend to his father and mother.

AUSA Andrew Adams and Pretrial Services Office Dayshawn Bostic consent to this request.

Respectfully submitted,
